Covenant College

HISTORY

Covenant College, operating under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church in America, is committed to the Bible as the Word of God written and accepts as its guiding interpretation the summary contained in The Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms. That commitment is expressed in the college's motto based on Colossians 1:18, “In all things Christ preeminent.”

Covenant strives to be a reformed learning community which recognizes and responds appropriately to Christ’s rule over creation and all areas of life through rigorous academic inquiry. A Covenant College education is designed to produce in students’ knowledge, skills, and values that equip students to serve effectively and live responsibly in a rapidly changing world.

Covenant offers associate and baccalaureate degrees in liberal arts disciplines and selected pre-professional programs as well as graduate degrees in education. Covenant provides a Christ-centered education to students from a wide range of denominational, geographic, ethnic, and financial backgrounds through scholarly classroom instruction and experiential opportunities.

On April 5, 1955, the Presbytery of the Great Plains met in Wilton, North Dakota, to consider establishing a liberal arts college under the Bible Presbyterian Synod. The college was organized by the Synod and named “Covenant” by Dr. Robert G. Rayburn, the school’s first president. In the fall of 1955, the school began operation at the Pasadena City Church in Pasadena, California. Covenant was to be a Christian liberal arts college acknowledging Christ’s preeminence to help Christians learn to live as active, reforming members of a complex society. In 1956 Covenant College moved to Creve Coeur in St. Louis County, near St. Louis, Missouri. The first property purchased in St. Louis, from Millstone Construction Company, consisted of 25 acres, with one building located in the center that was used for all functions.

A number of professors from Faith Theological Seminary near Philadelphia came to St. Louis, and Covenant became a four-year liberal arts college and a three-year theological seminary operated by one board and one administration.

An order of Catholic sisters at St. John’s Hospital donated a building to the college, which eventually became the administration building. Both the college and the seminary increased in size, and soon a new residence hall was needed. Mr. Hugh Smith heard that the “Castle in the Clouds” hotel near Chattanooga, Tennessee, was for sale. After much debate, the old hotel was purchased for Covenant College in 1964. Today the college campus contains a total of 200 acres. Covenant Seminary remains at the original campus.

Covenant has had six presidents: Dr. Robert Rayburn, Dr. Marion Barnes, Dr. Martin Essenburg, Dr. Frank Brock, Dr. Niel Nielson, and Dr. Derek Halvorson, who began serving July, 2012.

The official purpose statement of Covenant College is included in the Appendices.

Graduate School of Education

Covenant College’s principal aim is to explore and express the preeminence of Jesus Christ in all things, inspiring and equipping God’s people faithfully to fulfill their part in the grandest story of all, God’s history-encompassing project of bringing glory to himself through exalting Jesus Christ and summing up all things in him. The aim of the Graduate School of Education is to equip educators to lead and to serve faithfully in local schools according to professional principles grounded in biblical truth.

The Graduate School of Education at Covenant College provides a Christian community for graduate study. Prior to the on-campus session students prepare by reading books and articles, collecting information, and writing reflectively. When students arrive on campus for the three-week on-campus session, the anticipation of discourse with Christians about the nature of education is realized. Students share their lives, their thoughts, and their plans which results in a support network of Christian educators. Covenant graduate students learn how their faith relates to their work with learners who bear the image of God. Three graduate degree programs make up the Graduate School of Education: Master of Arts in Teaching and Master of Education in either Educational Leadership or Integrated Curriculum and Instruction.

Covenant College complies with federal and state requirements for nondiscrimination on the basis of age, race, color, gender, handicap, and national or ethnic origin in the administration of its policies and programs.
MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING

The Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) is a 34 credit hour program in the following academic areas (grade levels of certification in parentheses):

- Art (P-12)
- Biblical Studies (6-12; ACSI only)
- Biology (6-12)
- Chemistry (6-12)
- Drama (P-12)
- Economics (6-12)
- English (6-12)
- German (P-12)
- History (6-12)
- Mathematics (6-12)
- Music (P-12)
- Physics (6-12)
- Political Science (6-12)
- Spanish (P-12)

Middle grades level (grades 4-8) certification is available with any two specializations in: language arts, mathematics, science, social studies

The MAT is a three semester on-site cohort program emphasizing:

1. Research. One innovative aspect of the MAT is the emphasis on classroom research. This focus enables candidates to understand the value and limitations of educational research and to develop the values of self-reflection and self-evaluation as they conduct action research through various courses.

2. Collaboration. The MAT benefits from close collaboration with area schools and with colleagues from other academic departments in the college. Content specialists in other disciplines work with the Education Department in transcript review, remediation plans as needed, collaboration, and supervision of clinical practice.

3. Clinical Practice. MAT students complete hundreds of hours of clinical practice during both the fall and spring semesters.

4. Theory and Practice. Theory and practice are integrated in the program with a combination of on-campus classroom activities combined with field practicum activities in area schools. On-campus coursework is presented by a faculty that has combined practical and research experience. All candidates complete a full year of clinical practice in P-12 classrooms under the supervision and mentorship of experienced classroom teachers and Covenant faculty. Candidates gain experience working with students at different grade levels and from different socioeconomic, racial/ethnic and linguistic backgrounds, and students with exceptionalities.

5. Workable Schedule. The MAT allows candidates to complete a master’s degree and Certificate of Eligibility from the GaPSC in their desired teaching area in only one year. Summer classes are taught in an 8:30-5:00 o’clock, three week session, while classes are held in the evening during fall and spring semesters. It is also possible for current teachers who desire state certification and a master’s degree to complete the program while employed full time.

For most students, the MAT will be completed in one year with six credit hours in the summer term, 15 credit hours in the fall term, and 13 credit hours in the spring term. Students can choose to complete the MAT as a two-year course of study. The degree must be completed within six years.

MASTER OF EDUCATION

The Master of Education (MEd) is a 30 credit hour program with two specializations: Educational Leadership (EL) and Integrated Curriculum and Instruction (ICI). Both specializations are approved for certification by the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI).

The MEd requires three weeks on campus each of three summers. Each course consists of three sessions: pre-campus, on-campus, and post-campus.

Pre-campus session: The pre-campus session begins with registration (February-April) and includes significant coursework within a variety of assignments: reading of texts and articles, writing, analysis, data gathering, and reflection. The intent of the pre-campus work is to give background to and prepare students for the on-campus session.
On-campus session: The on-campus session consists of one intensive week per course on campus during which instructional activities are widely varied. This session occurs for three weeks late June through mid-July. Classes are held 8:30 am to 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday.

Post-campus session: The post-campus session consists of projects, exams, research, or papers in which students apply what they are learning to their own school settings. This session concludes on February 1.

EDU 785 (EL) and EDU 790 (ICI) are capstone courses and as such are the last course taken in the program, typically in the third year. These courses conclude March 1.

Students completing the MEd in three years are regular, full-time students, registering for three courses each of the first two years, and four courses the third year. It is possible to extend the program beyond three years but not beyond six years. Occasionally due to unusual circumstances, a student is unable to complete the MEd within the six year limit. Application may be made to the Dean of the Graduate School of Education to extend the program. If extended, continuation fees apply.

ADVISORS

All individuals admitted to the Graduate School of Education are assigned an academic advisor. Students are encouraged to contact their advisor with questions about their program of study.

AUDITING

Because the effectiveness of the program is directly related to active participation of students in all assignments, no auditing of courses is permitted in any graduate program.

AUTHORIZATION BY THE STATE OF GEORGIA

Covenant College is authorized to operate educational programs beyond secondary education, including programs that lead to a degree or a certificate by executive order of the governor of the State of Georgia. The Office of Inspector General is designated as the state agency responsible for receiving complaints made by students enrolled in private post-secondary education.

CONDUCT, DISCIPLINE PROCEDURES AND APPEALS

The following general regulations regarding student conduct apply to Graduate School of Education students.

1. Smoking and possession and use of alcohol and drugs are not permitted on campus.

2. Scripture specifically describes practices which are morally wrong, and are therefore unacceptable for all students while enrolled at Covenant College. Among these practices are drunkenness, adultery, and fornication (defined as cohabitation and/or premarital sexual relationships of a heterosexual or homosexual nature), stealing, slanderous talk, gossip, profanity, lying, cheating, and possession of obscene or pornographic materials.
3. Plagiarism involves quoting, paraphrasing, or in other ways using sources without proper acknowledgment. See extended statement regarding plagiarism in this catalog.

Violation of any of the regulations regarding conduct will be considered as grounds for discipline which could result in immediate dismissal.

Students accused of infractions are given notice either in writing or in a disciplinary information meeting so that the alleged misconduct is clearly understood. The student’s case is heard and decided by the Dean of Education.

The student may choose to appeal the decision to the Vice President for Academic Affairs, who may modify the decision of the Dean. Such an appeal must be submitted within two working days after the Dean’s decision. If the student wishes, the case may be further appealed to the President of the college. This appeal must be submitted within two working days after the decision by the Vice President.

The Graduate Council hears appeals from students regarding academic matters.

COSTS

It is the desire of Covenant College, within the limits of its available funds, to offer its Christian educational opportunities to all who qualify for admission, regardless of individual economic circumstances.

The cost of an education at Covenant is only partly covered by tuition charges; the balance is paid from contributions made by friends and alumni of the College. Because of increasing costs, the Covenant College Board of Trustees reserves the right to make changes at any time in the tuition charges and other general and special fees.

All account balances are due in full at the start of the term. If the account balance is not paid in full, a finance charge will be assessed at the end of each month on the unpaid balance. To avoid late payments, students should check their account balance on-line. Accounts must be fully paid each term before a student can register for a subsequent term, view grades, or receive a transcript. Account balances with no payment activity for more than three months may be sent to a collection agency and a collection agency commission of up to 55% added to the balance due.

Tuition and fees for MAT and MEd are listed under those sections of the catalog.

CREDIT HOUR DEFINITION

Consistent with industry best practices, Covenant has established a credit hour to be the amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally established equivalency that reasonably approximates:

1. Not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours out of class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester hour of credit, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time.

2. One credit hour will be awarded for no less than every two hours of other academic activities as established by the instruction including laboratory work, internships, practica, studio work, and other academic work leading to the awarding of credit hours.

FINANCIAL AID

To be considered for financial assistance an individual must be accepted and registered for one of the degree programs of the Graduate School of Education for a minimum of six semester hours. Eligibility for assistance is established through financial aid application submitted annually to the Financial Aid Office at Covenant College. With the exception of the Church Scholarship Promise and tuition reduction program, financial assistance is based on financial need. Covenant College uses the standard federal calculations to determine financial need.

Financial aid information is included with the registration packet. Financial aid grants may not be used to fund tuition deposits. Returning students who have previously received federal student loans must register within 90 days from the last end term date to remain in deferment status.

Federal aid will be earned on a prorated basis up to 60% of the term of attendance.

GRADES

Grades in the Graduate School of Education have the following meaning. Professors may modify standard letter grades with a plus or minus with the exception of A+.

A Represents work of distinctly superior quality and quantity accompanied by unusual evidence of initiative, thoroughness and originality.

B Represents work showing the above qualities to a lesser extent.

C Represents fulfillment of the minimum essentials of a course. Only one course with the grade of C will be applied to graduation requirements.

D Represents unacceptable work. The course must be repeated to be applied toward the degree.

F Represents failure. The standing of any student earning an F will be reviewed for continuation in the program. The course must be repeated to be applied toward the degree.

I Represents incomplete coursework. May be given to a student who has a valid reason for not completing some requirements of the course. Any Incomplete (I) granted for a course not completed by the date specified will be replaced with an F. All work for a course with an incomplete grade must be submitted to the instructor by the specified date or on the Monday morning following if the specified date falls on a weekend. Financial aid eligibility for the next term is determined based on the resulting grade point average.

W Represents official withdrawal from a course. The student receives no credit for that course or for work which may have been completed while registered for the course.
specified dates

- Incomplete received in MAT summer term must be completed by August 15
- Incomplete received in MAT fall term must be completed by January 3
- Incomplete received in MAT spring term must be completed by May 18
- Incomplete received in MEd term must be completed by April 1

Students may not register for additional coursework with more than one incomplete course grade. An Incomplete Grade Request Form must be discussed and agreed to by student and instructor prior to the conclusion of the term in order for an incomplete course grade to be granted. Forms are available from the office of the Graduate School of Education.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE

Grade point averages are computed on a 4.0 scale; an A is assigned the value of 4.0, a B is assigned 3.0, a C is assigned 2.0, and a D is assigned 1.0. Only one course with the grade of C will be applied to graduation requirements. If a course is repeated, the most recent grade is used in computing the grade point average. No grade below B is accepted by transfer. A minimum grade point average of 3.0 is required for continuation in and completion of the graduate degree.

GRIEVANCE POLICY

academic grievances

Students wishing to file grievances on academic issues should submit written appeals to the Dean of the Graduate School of Education following attempts to resolve the problem with the faculty member. Academic grievances concerning a faculty member should be directed initially to that faculty member, then to the Dean of Education.

general grievances

All general grievances, not of an academic nature, should be written and directed to the Dean of Education. Procedure for reporting grievances:

1. All student grievances must be submitted in writing to the proper college official.
2. The college official will then review the complaint and decide whether the complaint merits official action.
3. The appropriate official will then provide the student with a response to the complaint once a decision is made.
4. The student may appeal the decision in writing; appeals must be submitted within forty-eight hours to the Vice President for Academic Affairs and the Graduate Council.

LIBRARY SERVICES

The Anna Emma Kresge Memorial Library represents the critical center of the academic enterprise at Covenant College. The Library partners with teaching faculty to facilitate and promote learning through its physical facilities, dynamic collections, and services performed by professional and skilled support staff. It plays a significant role in fulfilling the mission of the College by providing information literacy instruction, appropriate resources in a variety of media formats, and personalized research assistance using a biblical frame of reference from within the Reformed tradition.

The Kresge Memorial Library seats about 250 on two floors. The first floor contains a variety of seating and furnishings that encourages engagement with library staff, faculty and other students. Reading tables, individual study carrels, soft seating, and a coffee lounge offer a warm, inviting environment. Most of the print book collection is housed on this main level. The second floor is a quiet study area housing carrels, semi-private group study rooms, a campus art gallery, the Writing Center, a seminar classroom, and a lounge/retreat room for receptions and other special events. The Library’s print collection related to the fine arts is stored on the second floor, along with its audio-visual materials, the College Archives, current and back issues of print periodicals, microforms, and the John Hamm Vocal Music Collection. Throughout the building are public access computers equipped with software for research and writing. The Library offers wireless access to the campus network as well as Wi-Fi connectivity.

By using a web-scale, cloud-based, integrated, single-search box online catalog, WorldCat Discovery Services, Library users may explore, identify, and access print and electronic resources held locally as well as those located in thousands of other libraries worldwide. Students may connect to the Library’s electronic resources from off-campus locations with appropriate campus network authentication. Especially noteworthy is the Library’s extensive eBook collection supporting all the graduate programs in teacher education.

Graduate students may use WorldCat Discovery Services on the Library’s home page (http://library.covenant.edu) to check the availability of locally held items, initiate the check-out process, and monitor their own Library accounts. The Library will ship circulating items from its print and media collections to graduate students and pay postage costs. Students are responsible for returning checked-out items (including return shipping costs) in a timely manner. Through its membership in OCLC, the world’s largest provider of bibliographic services, the Library networks with thousands of other institutions worldwide to provide interlibrary loan and document delivery services. Standard interlibrary loan transaction costs are subsidized by the Library.

The Library’s web site, http://library.covenant.edu provides more detailed information on collections, discipline-specific resource guides, policies, and other services.

PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING

As is clear from the definition of plagiarism below, Covenant College includes under the more narrow term “plagiarism” most, if not all, academic misbehavior usually designated by the word “cheating” -- that is, the giving or receiving of illegitimate assistance, especially under circumstances when not collaboration but one’s own individual work is expected and when a student presents material as his or her own individual work. Students may need to be reminded of the college’s policy on plagiarism which appears in the Student Handbook.

Plagiarism is inconsistent with good scholarship. Covenant College considers plagiarism a moral matter as well as a legal matter. It does this on the assumption that the function of a Christian college is not only to impart knowledge but also to nurture moral character of the student writer. Cheating hides individuals from the encounter with who they really are, what they really can do, or what they can be.

- Plagiarism is a deception--of the instructor, obviously, but no less of the student writer. Cheating hides individuals from the encounter with who they really are, what they really can do, or what they can be.
- Plagiarism is a theft of the materials themselves, but no less of the right of the cheater’s fellow students to equal consideration, for in effect the plagiarized paper throws all other papers in competition with work that likely has already been judged superior.
- Plagiarism breeds a moral atmosphere which denies all students the dignity and freedom due them as human beings. Inevitably, one cheater throws the taint of suspicion upon all, the entire climate is poisoned, and mutual respect is endangered.
- Plagiarism perverts the values of humane education when the instructor is forced to give extraordinary attention to the integrity of the grade and can no longer assume the integrity of the student.
- Plagiarism is a sin, a violation of the Eighth Commandment. It is inimical to the values and ideals of a Christian educational institution.

According to the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers (7th ed.; 2009; print; p. 52), plagiarism is:

Derived from the Latin word plagiarius (“kidnapper”), to plagiarize means “to commit literary theft” and to “present as new and original an idea or product derived from an existing source” (Merriam-Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary 11th ed.; 2003; print). Plagiarism involves two kinds of wrongs. Using another person’s ideas, information, or expressions without acknowledging that person’s work constitutes intellectual theft. Passing off another person’s ideas, information, or expressions as your own to get a better grade or gain some other advantage constitutes fraud.

In its discussion of the nature of plagiarism, the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers (7th ed.; 2009; print; p. 56) also notes three “less conspicuous forms of plagiarism,” including “the failure to give appropriate acknowledgment when repeating or paraphrasing another’s wording, when taking a particularly apt phrase, and when paraphrasing another’s argument or presenting another’s line of thinking.”
Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Part or all of a written or spoken assignment copied from another person’s manuscript without proper documentation
- Part or all of an assignment copied or paraphrased from a source (books, journals, newspapers, magazines, digital resources, web sites, charts, graphs, music scores, sound recordings, video recordings) without proper documentation
- Presenting as original (or paraphrased) the sequence of ideas, arrangement of material, or pattern of thought contained in another person’s work
- Allowing a paper, in outline or finished form, to be copied and submitted as the work of another person
- Preparing an assignment for another student and allowing him/her to submit it as his/her own work
- Keeping a written or digital archive of documents with the intent that they be copied and submitted as the work of another person
- Handing in one’s own work to satisfy more than one assignment without the permission of all instructors.

A paraphrase is the rewording of another’s ideas or the summary of another’s work, and even if the wording is distinctly different from the original source, the original source should be cited. If a person copies a distinctive phrase or description using the same words and word-order of the original source, these should be enclosed in quotation marks, with an appropriate reference.

To avoid plagiarism, the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers (7th ed.; 2009; print; p. 61) suggests:

- making a list of the writers and viewpoints you discovered in your research and using this list to double-check the presentation of material in your paper
- keeping the following three categories distinct in your notes: your ideas, your summaries of others’ materials, and exact wording you copy
- identifying the sources of all material you borrow—exact wording, paraphrases, ideas, arguments, and facts
- checking with your instructor when you are uncertain about your use of sources procedures and penalties for violations of academic integrity

Covenant College assumes the honor and integrity of its students. If someone should abuse this confidence, the college is prepared to act as follows:

1. An instructor who finds evidence of plagiarism or any violation of academic integrity will first discuss with the student the nature of the case, including its moral implications and its academic ramifications. Plagiarism normally results in a mark of zero for the plagiarized work. Instructors also have the prerogative to fail the student in the course or to recommend to the Dean of the Graduate School of Education that a student be dismissed from the graduate program.

2. After discussing the evidence with a student, an instructor should notify a student of any sanction for the plagiarism or cheating. Initial notification may be verbal, but should also be accompanied by written and electronic confirmation. A copy of this penalty policy, along with specific information needed for an appeal, should accompany the written and electronic notifications to the student.

3. Regardless of any other actions, once an instructor determines a student has committed the intentional plagiarism or cheating, the instructor must document and notify the Office of Academic Affairs of the incident. The Office of Academic Affairs will keep record of all incidents and will report multiple violations by the same student to the Academic Standards Committee for review and possible further action.

4. After being sent notification of a sanction, a student may appeal within two business days to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The Vice President will normally either uphold or deny the appeal; in rare instances, and after consultation with the instructor and student involved, the Vice President may suggest an alternate sanction for the instructor to impose.
PRIVACY RIGHTS OF STUDENTS

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their educational records. These rights include:

• The right to inspect and review the student’s educational records within 45 days of the day Covenant receives a request for access. A student should submit to the Office of Records or other appropriate official, a written request that identifies the records the student wishes to inspect. The College official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected.

• The rights to request the amendment of the student’s educational records that the student believes are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student’s privacy rights under FERPA. A student who wishes to request Covenant to amend a record should write the appropriate official clearly identifying the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why it should be changed. If Covenant decides not to amend the record as requested, Covenant will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student’s right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

Covenant discloses education records without a student’s prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A Covenant official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an educational record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities. A Covenant official is a person employed by the College in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom Covenant has contracted as its agent to provide a service instead of using Covenant employees or officials (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

Covenant designates the following categories of student information as public or “directory information.” Such information may be disclosed by the institution for any purpose at its discretion:

- Biographical: Name, address, telephone number, email address, photograph and video
- Enrollment: Dates of attendance, enrollment status, class, previous institution(s) attended, major field of study, awards, honors, degrees conferred (including dates).
- Athletic: Past and present participation in officially recognized sports and activities, physical factors (height, weight of athletes), date and place of birth.

Currently enrolled students may withhold disclosure of directory information under FERPA by submitting a written request to withhold disclosure. Contact the Office of Records.

The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the College to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-5901

Please direct any questions regarding privacy rights to the Office of Records at Records@covenant.edu or call 706.419.1134.

TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

Technology available to Covenant graduate students consists of computer laboratories, e-mail, Internet access, software, printers, and wireless capability. The standard computer software used at Covenant College is Microsoft Office. Graduate students are expected to be literate in the use of Word, PowerPoint, Excel, e-mail, and the Internet.

Wireless Internet access is available throughout the college campus. It is based on the 802.11 g/n standard with WPA2 encryption. Any wireless card that supports that standard will work in the residence halls, library, and classroom buildings. To access the wireless network, personal computers will need to be equipped with the appropriate wireless card. Additional details are included in the registration packet.
E-mail is a primary means of communication while a student at Covenant College. Personal e-mail accounts are required of all graduate students to communicate with faculty, personnel, and fellow students. A student’s primary e-mail address is required upon admission and is on file with the graduate office. Upon acceptance into the Graduate School of Education, students are assigned a Covenant username, password and Banner ID, and a Covenant e-mail account. The Covenant e-mail account, rather than a primary personal account, is used for communication while enrolled at Covenant. The Covenant student Banner account is the vehicle used for posting e-bills, financial aid, and records information.

TEST OF ENGLISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE—TOEFL

The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is required for international applicants whose native language is not English. A minimum score of 550 (paper-based exam), 215 (computer-based exam), or 80 (Internet-based exam) is required. Official score report should be submitted to Covenant College (Code 6124). WITHDRAWAL REFUND POLICY

When a student formally withdraws from the college, leaves the college without notice, or does not return from an approved leave of absence, adjustments may result from the refund of expenses and the reduction of financial aid. The date of withdrawal is determined by written application or violation of the attendance policy. See Withdrawal or Suspension.

The federal Title IV pro rata percentage will determine the refund or reduction based on the amount of time spent in academic attendance and has no relationship to the student’s incurred institutional charges. This pro rata percentage is used to determine the percentage adjustment at the time of withdrawal up through the completion of the 60 percent point in a term. After the 60 percent point, a student has earned 100 percent of the expenses and financial aid for the term. After the last day of late registration, no tuition will be refunded as a result of a load adjustment from dropping a course.

The effective withdrawal date of a student who withdraws from the College through the Office of Records will be the date on which the student begins the withdrawal process, either orally or in writing, or the last date of attendance at an academically-related activity (e.g., attendance in class, clinical practice, exams). In cases where a student is unable to visit the office, the effective date will be the date the student makes known their intent to withdraw with the Dean of Records: Rodney Miller, 706.419.1134 or miller@covenant.edu.

When a student leaves the College without notice, or receives all F’s or Incomplete grades for a semester, faculty will be contacted to determine the last date of academically-related activity and establish if the student unofficially withdrew. The college will look for evidence of course engagement or lack of course engagement (no response to course due dates) to help determine the effective date for both Title IV and institutional refund purposes. If an effective date cannot be accurately determined, the midpoint of the term will be used as the effective date. A different effective date may be used for refund purposes of institutional expenses compared to Title IV funds when there are differences between the dates the withdrawal was initiated compared to when the student completed the process.

Example: if a term is 100 days long and the student withdraws on the 20th day, 20 percent of the term has been completed resulting in an 80 percent reduction of the tuition and financial aid. If the student was billed for tuition of $10,000 and received financial aid of $6,000, the tuition would be reduced by $8,000 and financial aid reduced by $4,800. This will leave an $800 tuition charge that is still the responsibility of the student. Other charges will apply as stated in this section on refunds.

IN VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL OR SUSPENSION

Conditions for which a student may be dismissed are outlined under Conduct, Discipline Procedures and Appeals in this catalog.

A student who is dismissed for disciplinary reasons will still receive a pro rata percentage reduction of financial aid consistent with federal regulation noted above. Tuition charges will be refunded at a rate of one half of the financial aid pro rata percentage.

Example: Following the example under Withdrawal Refund Policy above, a student who is involuntarily withdrawn on the 10th day would receive an 80 percent pro rata reduction in financial aid, and a 40 percent refund of tuition (one half the financial aid percentage). Tuition charges would be refunded $4,000 and financial aid would still be reduced by $4,800. This will leave a $4,800 tuition charge that is still the responsibility of the student. Other charges will apply as stated in Withdrawal Refund Policy.

- $10,000 Tuition Charges less $4,000 refund ($10,000 x .40) = $6,000 Adjusted Tuition Charge
- $6,000 Financial Aid less $4,800 reduction ($6,000 x .80) = $1,200 Adjusted Available Aid
- $4,800 Remaining Tuition Charge

candidacy

Candidates for the Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) degree are students who have completed 18 semester hours, have regular student status, are in good standing in the Teacher Education Program, and have a minimum grade point average of 3.0.

certification

Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI)

Graduates of the MAT are eligible for an ACSI certificate upon completion of the degree. Certificate level is determined by content field: elementary (K-8), secondary (7-12), or all level (K-12), valid for five years.

Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC)

The MAT was approved by the GaPSC in May, 2011.

The MAT is a state approved program by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC). State approved status and accreditation are necessary for obtaining certification in any state. Graduates of the MAT are considered program completers of a state approved program and are eligible for a Certificate of Eligibility from the GaPSC upon completion of the degree.

The Georgia Professional Standards Commission is in the process of instituting a tiered system of certification effective July 1, 2014. Graduates of the MAT not hired in a school in the state of Georgia will receive a Certificate of Eligibility verifying that all requirements for certification have been met. Graduates of the MAT hired by a Georgia school will receive an Induction Certificate requested by the hiring school. The next level of certification will be determined by the processes and standards in place in the state of employment upon completion of the MAT. Tiered certification applies to all Georgia colleges offering a state approved teacher education program. Additionally, many other states currently adhere to a similar system.

During the course of the MAT, students are informed about certification procedures including establishing a MyPSC account. For questions related to certification, please contact the Certification Official, Rebecca Dodson: Rebecca.dodson@covenant.edu; 706.419.1406. Additional information regarding certification may be found at www.gapsc.com.

course deadlines and incompletes

Coursework is to be turned in by the date specified in the syllabus or course calendar for each course. Students failing to meet deadlines can expect to be penalized as much as one letter grade. If a student believes that a deadline will not be met, communication with the professor prior to the deadline is essential. An Incomplete Grade Request form must be discussed and agreed to by student and instructor prior to the conclusion of the term in order for an incomplete course grade to be granted. Any incomplete (I) granted for a course not completed by the date specified will be replaced with an F. All work for a course with an incomplete grade must be submitted to the instructor by the specified date or on the Monday morning following if the specified date falls on a weekend. Financial aid eligibility for the next term would be determined based on the resulting grade point average.

Specified dates

- Incomplete received in summer term must be completed by August 15
- Incomplete received in fall term must be completed by January 3
- Incomplete received in spring term must be completed by May 18

Students may not register for additional coursework with more than one incomplete course grade. An Incomplete Grade Request form must be discussed and agreed to by student and instructor prior to the conclusion of the term in order for an incomplete course grade to be granted. Forms are available from the office of the Graduate School of Education.

To be admitted as a regular student in the MEd, an individual must:

1. Hold a baccalaureate degree from a regionally-accredited college or university.
2. Have earned a grade point average of 3.0 for the last 60 semester hours of undergraduate study. Graduate coursework will be considered if a degree was not earned but the cumulative GPA was 3.5 or higher for a minimum of 15 semester hours.
3. Have completed at least 15 semester hours of undergraduate coursework in education. Evidence of five years of verified experience in professional education may be substituted for the required coursework in education.
4. Have taught for one or more years. (Application may be submitted during the first year of teaching.) If the experience was in a home rather than a school setting, the applicant will be considered for provisional admission.
5. Submit a credible written profession of faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.
6. Submit a sample academic paper demonstrating the applicant’s academic capability. The sample may be an academic paper previously written, or an academic paper focusing on a problem of special concern in education, or a brief paper written in which an idea related to that problem is developed. The academic paper must be a minimum of five pages, in academic form, and include appropriate citations. The paper will be examined for coherence of thought, organization, spelling and punctuation.
7. Have taken the General Test of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) and submit official scores to Covenant College (code 6124); the test must have been taken within five years of the date of application.

Applicants, who have already completed graduate work at a regionally accredited institution with a grade of at least “B” and took the Miller Analogies Test for admission to that graduate degree program, may choose to submit test scores in lieu of GRE scores. The test must have been taken within five years of the date of application to Covenant.

Applicants who have already completed a master’s degree are exempt from taking the GRE.
8. If applicants are not working in a school situation (teaching or administration) a letter of cooperation is required from a school administrator stating that the applicant will have access to classroom or school situations where graduate coursework can be applied.

9. International candidates must submit the following in addition:
   A. The International Student Certification of Finances form prior to, or along with, submitting the application for admission to the MEd. The form is provided in the application packet and available at www.med.covenant.edu. The certification form must be supported with a copy of a bank statement or letter from a bank confirming the availability of financial resources to pay for educational expenses. If a third party sponsor or organization will be providing resources for the student, a similar confirmation of resources from an individual or a letter from an organization should be included. One to two months should be allowed for processing certification of finances and two months minimum should be allowed to obtain a student visa.

   B. International transcripts submitted for admission to the MEd must be evaluated and authenticated. The following organizations are reputable such that Covenant College will accept a course evaluation (to award college credit on a course-by-course basis) and a degree confirmation. ### certification

In April 2007, the Master of Education was approved by ACSI for the awarding of an ACSI certificate upon completion of the MEd degree. Graduates of the MEd are eligible for an ACSI certificate upon completion of the degree. The certificate is valid for five years.

Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC)
The educational leadership specialization in the Master of Education is an approved program by the GaPSC for program recommendation in states other than Georgia. Individuals would need to satisfy any certification requirements outside the parameters of the MEd in order to become certified. It is advisable to apply for certification within five years of completion of the MEd degree.

Within the state of Georgia, certification in educational leadership is available at the specialist level only. Certified individuals holding a master’s degree in any field, who have a passing score on the Georgia Content Assessment of Educators (GACE™) in educational leadership, who hold an approved leadership position in a Georgia school, and are enrolled in a leadership program at the specialist level may apply for a five-year non-renewable certificate in educational leadership. Course deadlines and incompletes

Coursework is to be turned in by the published Course Completion Date for each course. Students failing to meet this deadline can expect to be penalized as much as one letter grade. If a student believes that a deadline will not be met, communication with the professor prior to the deadline is essential. An Incomplete Grade Request form must be discussed and agreed to by student and instructor prior to the conclusion of the term in order for an incomplete course grade to be granted. Any incomplete (I) granted for a course not completed by the date specified will be replaced with an F. All work for a course with an incomplete grade must be submitted to the instructor by the specified date or on the Monday morning following if the specified date falls on a weekend.

Incomplete received must be completed by April 1

Students may not register for additional coursework with more than one incomplete course grade. Incomplete Grade Request forms are available from the office of the Graduate School of Education.

Graduate record exam

See Admission Requirements in this catalog.

The revised GRE General Test is required for admission to the Master of Education. www.gre.org provides information regarding test registration, test centers, score reporting procedures, etc. Test-taker news and information is available at www.ets.org/gre/testtakernews.

Graduation

Graduation is held in May in any given year. All degree requirements and fiscal responsibilities must be completed and met by April 15 in order to graduate in May of any given year. Degrees are awarded in May and December only.

APPENDIX A

The Purpose of Covenant College

Covenant College is a Christ-centered institution of higher education, emphasizing liberal arts, operated by a Board of Trustees elected by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America, and exists to provide post-secondary educational services to the denomination and the wider public.

The college is committed to the Bible as the Word of God written, and accepts as its most adequate and comprehensive interpretation the summary contained in the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms.

The focus of Covenant College is found in its motto, based on Colossians 1:18 “In All Things...Christ Preeminent.” Acknowledging Christ preeminent as the creator of all things, as the redeemer of people fallen into sin, as the touchstone of all truth, and as the sovereign ruler over all areas of life, the college strives to discern and to unfold the implications of His preeminence in all things. To serve this end, we seek to appropriate the mind of Christ as the biblical perspective from which we characterize and respond to reality. In attempting to make such a biblically-grounded frame of reference explicit and operative, we are committed to excellence in academic inquiry, and we seek to define all areas of the college’s structure and program according to this understanding of our purpose.

We seek to implement our purpose in view of our belief that all human beings are created in the image of God and are, therefore, spiritual, moral, social beings who think, act, value, and exercise dominion. Because we are called to reflect in finite ways what God is infinitely, we attempt to institute programs designed to offer all students the opportunity to discover and give expression to their potential in each facet of their redeemed humanness.

With these commitments in mind, we seek to work together as a college community, responsibly striving, corporately and personally, to accomplish the following general aims in every area of life:

1. to see creation as the handiwork of God and to study it with wonder and respect;
2. to acknowledge the fallen nature of ourselves and of the rest of creation and to respond, in view of the renewal that begins with Christ’s redemption, by seeking to bring every thought and act into obedience to Him;
3. to reclaim the creation for God and to redirect it to the service of God and humankind, receiving the many valuable insights into the structure of reality provided by the good hand of God through thinkers in every age, and seeking to interpret and re-form such insights according to the Scriptures;
4. to see learning as a continuous process and vocation;
5. to endeavor to think scripturally about culture so as to glorify God and promote true human advancement

As an educational institution, Covenant College specifically seeks to provide educational services from a Reformed perspective to the students who enroll. While the traditional undergraduate, on-campus programs remain the primary focus of the college, we recognize that the college has a significant role to fulfill in the education of students in nontraditional categories.
Students are expected to become active participants in fulfilling the general aims just outlined. It is the college’s purpose to help these students make significant progress toward maturity in the following areas:

1. Identity in Christ
   A Covenant student should be a person who is united with Christ and committed to Him. This union and commitment should lead to an understanding both of one’s sin and of one’s significance as a person redeemed by Christ, resulting in a growing awareness of purpose. This awareness of purpose should facilitate the development of goals, priorities, and practices that foster spiritual effectiveness and well-being, including the emotional, social, physical, and intellectual aspects of the individual students.

2. Biblical frame of reference
   Students should be acquiring the ability to orient their lives by a perspective based on scriptural revelation. For realization of this goal the following are important:
   - Scriptural knowledge Students should be acquiring a working knowledge of the Scriptures, rejoicing in their promises and allowing them to direct their thoughts and actions in every area of life.
   - Academic inquiry Students should be acquiring a broad appreciation of the various aspects of creation, becoming familiar with valid methods of inquiry into each area of study. Each student should be acquiring some depth in one or two academic disciplines.
   - Analytical skills Students should be acquiring the capacity for incisive, critical and logical thinking.
   - Communication skills Students should be acquiring the ability to communicate ideas clearly in both speaking and writing.

3. Service that is Christ-like
   - Students should be assuming responsibilities within a local congregation as well as in the community of all believers. This implies demonstrating a positive influence on others while at the same time accepting their loving concern.
   - Students should be assuming responsibilities in society as servants of God. This involves a total life-calling to fulfill one’s covenantal responsibilities as succinctly summarized in Genesis 1:28 and Matthew 28:18-20, including not only the student’s specific vocation, but all other activities as well.
Our Lord Jesus Christ, our Benefactor,
Our all in all, both in this world and in the world to come,
Is Christ the S表, the firstborn of all creation,
And all things were created through him and for him.

All for Jesus

Appendix B

The College Hymn

All for Jesus!
All my being's ransomed power;
All my thoughts and words and doings;
All my days and all my hours.

Let my hands perform his bidding;
Let my feet run in His ways;
Let my eyes see Jesus only;
Let my lips speak forth His praise.

Worldlings prize their gems of beauty,
Cling to gilded toys of dust;
Boast of wealth and fame and pleasure--
Only Jesus will I trust.

Since my eyes were fixed on Jesus,
I've lost sight of all beside,
So enchained my spirit's vision,
Looking at the crucified.

Oh what wonder! How amazing!
Jesus, glorious King of Kings,
Deigns to call me His beloved,
Lets me rest beneath His wings.
Amen.

Motto, Thistle Logo and Tartan

Covenant’s motto, “In all things Christ preeminent,” is based on the Apostle Paul’s letter to the Colossian church, in which he reminds young believers of Jesus Christ’s central and exalted role in relationship to the created order: “He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or authorities - all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent.” (Colossians 1:15-18) Jesus Christ's status as the firstborn of all creation is the foundation of Covenant’s educational mission, as the College seeks as a community of learning to know and celebrate his preeminence in all dimensions of existence.

The thistle has been used as a logo from the earliest days of the College and is used in the College shield. The thistle has a much longer history as the national symbol of Scotland. In the College’s context, the thistle points to the distinctly Scottish heritage of Presbyterianism. But for the Scots themselves it is a reminder of the legendary day in 1263 when the invading Vikings of King Haakon IV stepped on the prickly spurs and cried out in pain, thus alerting the sleeping Scots of their presence. The Norsemen would never rule over or attack the Scots again.

Offset in the right-hand side of the college shield is a swatch of Covenant tartan. Many academic shields contain some sort of symmetrical chevron, cross, or division. Covenant, in keeping with that tradition, employs a chevron in its shield. The swatch of plaid used for the chevron is derived from the Clergy tartan worn in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries by Scottish pastors and employed by the College in various uses. The Covenant tartan is used in the Covenant graduate hood.
